1. The Office of Personnel has no nominees. Of four whom we would consider likely candidates, two are selected for outside schools for next year, a third is but GS-13 and is being nominated for the NIPA Program, and the fourth will be replacing one of the two going to school.

2. If the opportunity is repeated in following years, we would like to have the chance to bid again.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director for Support

SUBJECT : Nominations for Fellowship in Public Affairs -
Princeton University 1965-1966

25X1 1. The Office of Training nominates [redacted] for consideration by the Agency Training Selection Board as a participant in the Educational Program for Federal Officials at Mid-Career conducted under auspices of the Woodrow Wilson School of Public and International Affairs at Princeton University for the Academic Year 1965-1966.

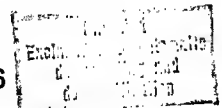

2. [redacted] is definitely being groomed for eventual assignment as a Faculty Chief in the Intelligence School. His past and prospective work experiences relate quite closely to the normal seminar topics offered in the Woodrow Wilson School. [redacted] has a unique responsibility within OTR for concern with U. S. public policy because of his continuing responsibility for development of the American thesis. 25X1

3. A biographic profile is attached.
